RRBC has always made the health and safety of our campers and staff a priority. In this regard, RRBC has implemented additional health procedures and policy, in part, as outlined by the CDC:

Pre-Arrival Screening: All campers must be pre-screened at home, by having their temperature taken, prior to leaving for camp Monday morning. Campers may not attend camp if they have two or more symptoms of any communicable disease. Past 24 Hours: Vomiting, diarrhea, nasal drainage and/or coughing/sneezing, or a rash. Past 14 Days: Fever of 100 degrees+ (without aid of fever reducing meds), cough, or shortness of breath. Pre-Screening Questions (you will be asked these questions upon arrival at RRBC): Have you been in contact with someone who has COVID-19 in the last 14 days? Have you traveled outside of the USA in the last 14 days? Do you live in or have you visited an area that is considered a hotspot in the last 14 days? If the camper has symptoms or can answer yes to any of the above questions, you must contact RRBC for approval to attend.

Screening Process: As in previous years, upon arrival at RRBC all campers will go through a health screening by RRBC staff. This will now include temperature being taken and asked about symptoms and the questions listed above. Policy: If a camper arrives at RRBC with communicable disease symptoms, all arriving in the same vehicle will be sent home. RRBC reserves the right to not admit a camper who poses a risk to others. Communicable illnesses are an inherent risk of large group gatherings and RRBC is not responsible for campers contracting an illness. Should an illness occur, the affected individuals will be isolated, parent/guardian will be contacted, and they will be sent home. Medication: All medications must be turned into the nurse. It must be in the original container. Please do not send general OTC (tylenol, advil, etc.) if needed, RRBC will provide them.

Insurance: RRBC has a secondary insurance policy with coverage up to a $5,000 limit, illness is not covered.

Parent/Guardian Acknowledgement: "I, as a parent/guardian of this camper, have read this policy and understand and agree to the above. I hereby give permission for my child to attend RRBC, to participate in all activities, and for any pictures/testimony of my child to be used in promotion of the camp. I hereby give consent for any medical treatment deemed necessary for my child." I acknowledge that participation in the activity described above involves risk to the participant (and to the participant's parents or guardians, if the participant is a minor), and may result in various types of injury including, but not limited to, the following: sickness, exposure to infectious/communicable disease, bodily injury, death, emotional injury, personal injury, property damage, and financial damage. In consideration for the opportunity to participate in the activity described above, the participant (or parent/guardian if the participant is a minor) acknowledges and accepts the risks of injury associated with participation in and transportation to and from the activity. The participant (or parent/guardian) accepts personal financial responsibility for any injury or other loss sustained during the activity or during transportation to and from the activity, as well as for any medical treatment rendered to the participant that is authorized by RRBC or its agents, employees, volunteers, or any other representatives. Further, the participant (or parent/guardian) releases and promises to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless RRBC for any injury arising directly or indirectly out of the described activity or transportation to and from the activity, whether such injury arises out of the negligence of the activity sponsor, the participant, or otherwise. If a dispute over this agreement or any claim for damages arises, the participant (or parent/guardian) agrees to resolve the matter through a mutually acceptable alternative dispute resolution process. If the participant (or parent/guardian) and RRBC cannot agree upon such a process, the dispute will be submitted to a three-member arbitration panel for resolution in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association.
